Lamat Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 492 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.7in. x 1.3in. Christopher is a young Catholic priest sent from his native Bend, Oregon to the big and sin-full city of San Francisco during the height of the AIDS crisis. He quickly finds that the metropolitans are quirky but friendly and makes friends with a number of parishioners -- amongst them a homeless man, a gay couple, and Dolores, a beautiful Latina who makes a living selling tamales on the streets. Christopher has chosen his profession because he is lazy and has no interest in sex. He thought that a perfect combination for a Catholic priest, and so far his vocation has served him well. But what if the clues are not solved correctly? Are Christopher's lazy years in seminary going to be sufficient to solve a puzzle that might cost a young child's life? While time is running out faster and faster, Christopher exhausts all...
