The essentials of the home project plan are as follows: (1) a definite, detailed plan for work at home covering a season, or a more or less extended period of time; (2) it must be a part of the instruction of the school in agriculture; (3) the parents and pupil should agree with the teacher upon the plan; (4) the home work must have competent supervision; (5) records and reports of time, method, cost and income must be honestly kept and submitted to the teacher. In the study and practice of a vocational subject such as agriculture, we may distinguish three aspects, each involving distinct pedagogical characteristics and special problems of administration. The first includes the concrete, specific, or practical work, such as the actual making of a garden, the raising of poultry,...
