Excerpt: .called to your aid a private detective force--that s us. Jerome and Wallace and me can be detectives, and Augustus can be a policeman. I want to be a detective, too, objected Augustus. It s nice to be a policeman, soothed Bobby. When we ve tracked down the thief, we ll call to you and say, Officer, handcuff this man! and you ll snap em on his wrist and lead him to jail. All right! agreed Augustus. Give em to me. Later, when we re on his track, said Bobby. Now, Peter, you ought to plan a campaign. Course, you are n t expected to find out anything, the local police never do; but nominally we re under your orders, so you must tell us to shadow some one. Peter had been staring into space only half at tending to their prattle. Bobby jogged...
