Jessica Kingsley Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Race, Culture and Ethnicity in Psychiatric Practice: Working with Difference, Charles Kaye, Tony Lingiah, Chandra Ghosh, Krishnan Gnanasekaran, Jayne Hayes, .worth noting is the book's accessibility. Its mixture of essays and poetry intersperses the personal and the political, and in so doing helps to underscore the rich and multi-layered issues that frame black and minority ethnic people's lives -both in the mental health system and more broadly.Its not a moment too soon' Transcultural Society vol.39 'I would encourage forensic practitioners to read this book. It contains some outstanding individual contributions, answers to specific cultural questions and provides resources to help address racial issues in secure services, in the form of policy statements and audit protocols from Broadmore Hospital.' -British Journal of psychiatry Forensic Focus 13 'This book addresses issues such as antidiscriminatory training, diet, religious and spiritual needs. These are not addressed in a practical sense in most psychiatric secure units, and it is commendable that they are covered in this book. The editors also deal with an unprecedented, though very much welcomed, area; the experience of black staff at work. This is one of the most controversial issues in nursing generally. There were no attempts by the editors to water down the grim reality of the situation as experienced by many black staff at work. The discussion on racism from patients must also be singled out. All too often, those who are in a position to make a difference dance nervously around this issue. It is a relief to see this book addressing the problem and making suggestions to bring about change.I hope that this book will help health professionals to find a way through this hummocky terrain.' -Nursing Times 'Its strength lies in two areas. The first is the...
