This book is the author's autobiography encompassing 86 years (1929-2015), illustrated with pictures, some of them historical. The painful experiences of leaving his country for political reasons, and his adaptation to a new country and a new language, are vividly described. He has written this autobiography with the ambitious purpose of leaving the younger generations with some useful advice learned through the experiences of a long, productive, and successful life in his adopted country, the United States of America.
