Miss Josephine Shaw made her first appearance as Mrs. Russell at Burton s Theatre, September 3d, 1849, in the character of the Duchess de Torrenueva, and afterward established her reputation as a first-class actress, in the difficult part of Edith, in Dombey Son, which she played better than any previous or succeeding representative. On becoming Mrs. Hoey, in 1851, she retired from the stage, but the tempting offers of Mr. Wallack and her natural love of art finally overcame her determination, and she made her re-appearance at his theatre, January 30th, 1854, as Constance, in the Love Chase, and remained there, to the mutual satisfaction of the management and the audience, until the...
