Sometimes the past won't stay where it belongs. Marc and Natalia are settling into parenthood, but they can't shake the feeling of déjà vu when it comes to their new baby. Sensing they've been a family before when something horrible happened, they journey back in time, through hypnotic regression, to eighteenth century Belgium, where they relive a shocking past life that challenges their love more than any other and causes repercussions in the present. Last time, remembering their past lives brought Marc and Natalia together, this time it may tear them apart.
