Father Horrigan, I do not intend to invest it with any of the airs of a book, but merely to say a few words of explanation that may insure a more favorable reception for this new wayfarer in the literary world. The publication of the lecture is an answer to a request that seemed to me to indicate the wish of the people of St. Louis Bertrand s congregation. That kind words in similar strain came from distant friends is an encouragement cordially appreciated; but the manuscript would not have seen the light had it not been for the desire, so affectionately expressed, by those before whom the lecture was delivered.
